INTRODUCTION

Religion and Society International Conference 2017 is a continuation of the same conference which was held in 2012. This conference will bring together academics and scholars from various religious and cultural backgrounds to address issues related to religion in the society today. This conference hopes to be a platform for higher intellectual interactions to address the two important elements in our lives today – religion and life.

Our objectives of this conference are in line with the mission of the Centre for the Promotion of Knowledge and Language (PPIB) as a center of excellence that focuses on developing successful holistic individuals. This conference will definitely place PPIB and UMS as a relevant source of reference at both local and international levels.

OBJECTIVES

1. To provide a platform for discussion on religion and harmony at the international level to academics and scholars.
2. To provide a platform in the international academic network of academics and intellectuals.
3. To introduce PPIB and UMS as a center of knowledge at an international level.
